Scripture Union Primary Age Club

What is a SUPA Club?

- SUPA Club (Scripture Union Primary Age) are Christian clubs for kids operating in primary schools throughout Australia. They are part of the work of a worldwide interdenominational movement called Scripture Union.
- SUPA Club can be run as a breakfast, lunch or after school program.
- SUPA Clubs operate in schools with the permission of the principal and they are staffed by volunteers from the local community and churches.

What is the purpose of SUPA Club?

- To provide a friendly, fun & stimulating club atmosphere in which kids build meaningful relationships.
- For kids to have the opportunity to hear about Jesus and the Christian story and to investigate life's questions.
- To provide opportunities for kids to learn to help and care for each other, develop leadership and team skills and serve each other and the school community.

What happens at SUPA Club?

- It is an exciting time with fun games, interesting craft, singing, drama, stimulating stories from the Bible, and the occasional treat. It gives children an opportunity to investigate some of life's challenging questions.

Who are the leaders?

- The leaders are all members of local churches who believe that everyone should have the opportunity to investigate Christianity for themselves.
- Scripture Union ACT oversees the running of the club. All volunteers are required to complete a screening process, which includes a Working with Vulnerable People check and Childsafe training.
